

Strawberry Moon
Colleen Cerny ('10)

Evenings, during the summer,
Inanna sets out to make her celestial treat.
She mixes some magic ingredients,
heats them by the sun,
and serves them on the night sky platter.
Her dish is a heavenly donut.
Stars scatter like crumbs dropped from her Saturnine bowl. Topped with sugar glaze, sweet and shiny, she dips it into a milky galaxy, and offers it to the Earth. Earth nibbles nocturnally, until the Strawberry Moon is gone.
